

2008 FRED EBB AWARD GUIDELINES

Eligibility:

Each applicant must be a composer/lyricist or composer/lyricist team wishing to create work for the musical theatre, and must not yet have achieved significant commercial success. In addition, applicant must meet at least one of the following requirements:

1. Work by the applicant has been produced on stage or in workshop;
2. At least one song by the applicant has been published, recorded, or performed professionally;
3. Applicant is or has been a member of a professional musical theatre workshop (such as ASCAP or BMI) or a musical theatre development program;

Application Materials:

1. A CD of up to four songs for one or more musical theatre pieces, with typewritten lyrics and a description of the dramatic context for each song; and
 2. A completed application form.
- Applications will be coded as they arrive. Because all submissions will be reviewed blind, please do not place name(s) of writer(s) on the CD, lyric sheets, or description of dramatic context.
 - Only musical theatre work will be considered.
 - The applicant(s) must have written all the songs included in the submission. For example, a composer cannot submit one song with her own lyrics, and a second song with lyrics by another writer.
 - No individual may appear on more than one application. You cannot apply as an individual and again as part of a team, or as part of more than one songwriting team.

Submission Deadline and Award:

Applications will be accepted from June 2-30, 2008. Please mail applications to Fred Ebb Award, Roundabout Theatre, 231 West 39th Street, Suite 1200, New York, New York 10018. The winner will be selected in November 2008, and will receive $50,000. The Foundation will also produce a one-night showcase of the winner's work; date to be determined.
